This month we invite submissions of original papers for the.. We invite submissions on the following topics: 1.Gerry's Sweet Spot Thanks to Hurricane Sandy, the people of Newark have had to pay attention to the storm's potential effects on their own neighborhoods. It's a good time to take a look at the city's largest and at one point fastest growing African-American and Latino areas and see how different residents are coping and planning. Step 1: Chuck Graham's ESL. The Newark school superintendent did not encourage optimism when he offered a small assembly to Newark's fast-growing Hispanic population. "If you are undocumented you can just as easily be deported at any time," he said. Other educators echoed his
